Sub: Extension of scope for regular in-service Teachers to apply for the Post of Assistant Professor with pay protection benefit

Dear Sir,

This is to inform you that previously regular in-service teachers could apply for the recruitment of Assistant Professor in the government aided Colleges in West Bengal with pay protection benefit, after rendering a certain period of service. We are surprised to know, this year in advertisement no. 1/2018, dated 16.07.2018, in-service college teachers are not allowed to enjoy the same benefit.

Sir, it is a clear case of deprivation and injustice to the in-service college teachers who wish to change their respective colleges like earlier years due to valid reasons. We think this scope for change of college for in-service teachers through new recruitment process should not be curtailed on humanitarian ground.

We would therefore earnestly request you to make necessary arrangement for ensuring justice to the regular in-service teachers with due priority.

Thanking you,

Yours sincerely
